French literature, live, loud and proud!

From 12 to 21 May, the Institut français goes Beyond Words to cross borders and genres and takes us on a literary journey through lively discussions, powerful readings and inspiring live performances and screenings.

This year, we will partner with our friends from Gallic Books for a special evening with Muriel Barbery, Antoine Laurain and Jean-Baptiste Andrea.

We'll showcase the New French Novel with Laurent Mauvignier, Lauren Elkin and Éric Vuillard, while celebrating the 150th anniversary of the birth of Colette with Emmanuelle Lambert, Deborah Levy, Michèle Roberts and Diana Holmes, and a special screening of Gigi, attended by Leslie Caron.

Virginia Woolf will be in the spotlight with Paul B. Preciado, and so will Marguerite Duras, with the screenings of India Song and Une aussi longue absence.

The festival will also feature Nobel Prize-winner Annie Ernaux's directorial debut.

Last but not least, it's a great honour to welcome Ian McEwan, who will present his new novel, Lessons, a compelling reflexion on history and humanity.

Other stories, wonders and encounters await you. Turn the pages, discover the full programme and join us at Beyond Words Festival.

With special thanks to Florence and Vincent Gombault for their support to the festival.

FRIDAY 12 MAY

Brainwashed: Sex - Camera - Power

FILM + Q&A

dir. Nina Menkes, 2022, 107 mins

'The first step of freedom is consciousness.' So says director Nina Menkes, introducing her compelling documentary about the systemic use of gendered techniques in filmmaking and how these subconsciously impact the representation of women in society. Building upon feminist film theorist Laura Mulvey's landmark essay Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema, Menkes draws on excerpts from over 175 films to prove her point.

8.30pm + Q&A with dir. Nina Menkes

Gigi

FILM + TALK

dir. Vincente Minnelli, 1958, 115 mins

Gigi (Leslie Caron), an innocent French girl, finds herself being trained by two veteran Parisian courtesans so that she can become the mistress of Gaston Lachaille, a family friend and heir to a sugar fortune. The source material for director Vincente Minnelli's ornate musical lies in Colette's 1944 novella of the same name, one of the most recognised works in her illustrious writing career.

SUNDAY 14 MAY

Loving Highsmith

FILM

dir. Eva Vitija, 2022, 83 mins

Loving Highsmith is a unique look at the life of celebrated American author Patricia Highsmith, based on her diaries and notebooks and the intimate reflections of her lovers, friends and family. Excerpts from unpublished notes voiced by Gwendoline Christie (Game of Thrones), beautifully interwoven with archive material create a vivid, touching portrait of one of the most fascinating female writers of the 20th Century.

11.45am - £13, conc. £11

Also showing on Wed 17 May (4.30pm)
£10, conc. £8

MONDAY 15 MAY

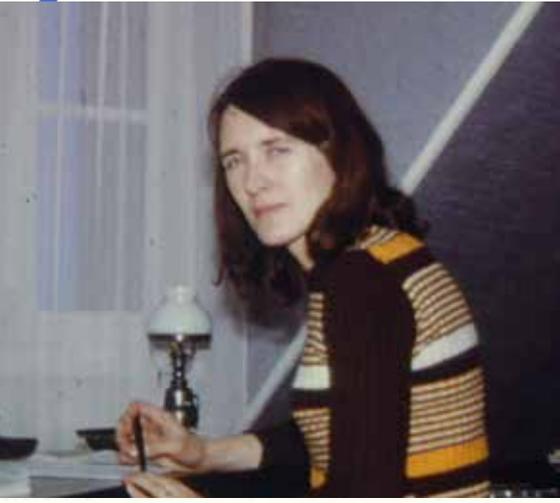

Art Matters with Tarek Lakhri

TALK + READINGS

Poet and artist Tarek Lakhri explores the themes of desire, queer poetic and empowerment through a reading followed by a conversation with curator Lynton Talbot. The discussion will delve into the relation between his writing and visual arts practice, and his use of language as a tool for resistance and self-defence.

MONDAY 15 MAY

The Super 8 Years
 dir.s Annie Ernaux & David Ernaux-Briot, 2022, 61 mins
 In 2022, Annie Ernaux, winner of the Nobel Prize in literature, together with her son David Ernaux-Briot, created a wistful cine-memoir composed of super-8 family footage shot between 1972 and 1981. This dreamy documentary, which premiered to critical acclaim in Cannes' Directors' Fortnight, written and narrated by Ernaux herself, tells of a time when the author was in her thirties and raising two children.

The Birthday Party: Laurent Mauvignier & Lauren Elkin
TALK + READINGS
 Told in a rhythmic and propulsive prose that weaves seamlessly from one consciousness to the next over the course of a day, Laurent Mauvignier's The Birthday Party is a deft unravelling of the stories we hide from others and from ourselves, a gripping tale of the violent irruptions of the past into the present. Meet Laurent Mauvignier, a major contemporary French writer, in conversation with author and translator Lauren Elkin.

TUESDAY 16 MAY

Milan Kundera, Odysée des illusions trahies

FILM + INTRO

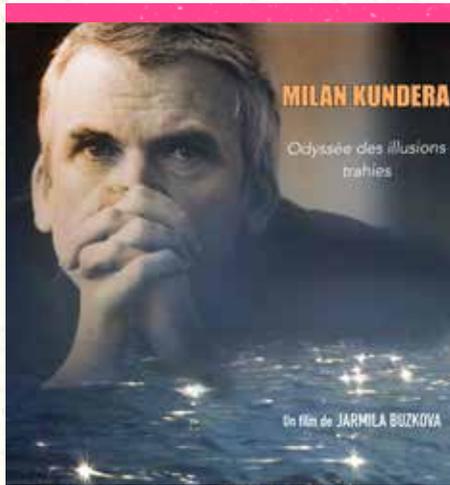

dir. Jarmila Buzkova, 2022, 53 mins

This rare documentary examines the singular and enigmatic trajectory of one of the most widely read writers in the world. From his time in Communist Czechoslovakia to his Parisian exile and writing in French, from his quest for glory to his withdrawal from public life, this moving homage conceived as an Odyssey sheds light on the author of The Unbearable Lightness of Being.

Lessons on Life and Literature with Ian McEwan & Ted Hodgkinson

TALK + READINGS

In Lessons, Ian McEwan masterfully unravels a fascinating chronicle of our time. How do global events beyond our control shape our lives and our memories? What can we really learn from the traumas of the past? From the Cuban Missile Crisis to the fall of the Berlin Wall, from the COVID pandemic to climate change, one of the greatest British writers discusses his 500-page socio-political epic tour de force with Ted Hodgkinson, Head of Literature at Southbank Centre.

WEDNESDAY 17 MAY

THURSDAY 18 MAY

Revisiting Colonialism with Éric Vuillard & Natalya Benkhaled-Vince

TALK

In recent years, debates around France's colonial past have multiplied and literature has played a significant political and critical role to address this legacy. From the Belgian colonisation in Congo (2012) to the Indochina War in An Honourable Exit (2022), Goncourt Prize-winning author Éric Vuillard deconstructs the official version of History. He will discuss how literature aims to illuminate structural inequalities and oppression with Natalya Benkhaled-Vince, historian of the French Empire, decolonisation and post-colonial histories.

Colette by Deborah Levy, Michèle Roberts, Emmanuelle Lambert & Diana Holmes

TALK + READINGS

Once a figure of scandal, now a literary icon – Colette (1873-1954) is being hugely celebrated in France as 2023 marks the 150th anniversary of her birth. Acclaimed authors Deborah Levy, Michèle Roberts, Emmanuelle Lambert and Diana Holmes join the celebration with a discussion on her colourful life but above all on her luminous writing, with its implicit feminism and affirmation of a profound joie de vivre.

FRIDAY 19 MAY

FRIDAY 19 MAY

Who Am I? Orlando, with Paul B. Preciado & Merve Emre

TALK

"Virginia Woolf wrote my biography before me when publishing Orlando, a century ago" - Paul B. Preciado. Published in 1928, Virginia Woolf's Orlando follows a character who transforms into different bodies and genders throughout history, challenging binary systems and demonstrating relevance in queer theory. In a conversation with author, academic and literary critic Merve Emre, trans philosopher and writer Paul B. Preciado will discuss how Orlando resonates with his personal transformation, writing and theory.

India Song FILM + INTRO

dir. Marguerite Duras, 1975, 120 mins
Delphine Seyrig plays the bored and promiscuous wife of a French diplomat in Marguerite Duras's Calcutta based drama, now fully restored to its original glory. Set in the 1930s, the tedium of her existence is relieved when she embarks on a string of affairs, all of which are known but ignored by her husband. From intense connections to brief encounters, Duras creates a world in which the off-screen voice represents the ghostly presence of a time that once was.

3.30pm + intro by film curator Federico Rossin - £15, conc. £13
in French with EN subs

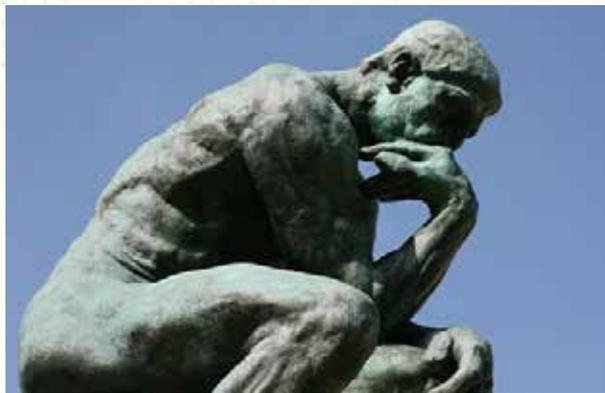

SATURDAY 20 MAY

Café Philo: The Function of the Author

DEBATE

Open to everyone interested in discussing philosophical issues, this festival's edition of the Café Philo wonders: "Is the function of the author to reveal the world, or to invent it?" Join the conversation.

10.30am - £3

SUNDAY 21 MAY

Une aussi longue absence FILM

dir. Henri Colpi, 1961, 94 mins

Drawing from a screenplay by Marguerite Duras, Henri Colpi's Une aussi longue absence depicts the unbearable longing of Thérèse Langlois for her husband, who disappeared during World War Two. One day, a tramp passes by humming a familiar tune, and Therese is convinced that the vagabond is her husband, but she soon discovers this stranger has lost his memory. Therese tries hard to make him recollect in the hope of renewing the love they once knew.

Alice in Wonderland

CINÉFAMILIES

dir.s Clyde Geronimi & Wilfred Jackson, 1951, 75 mins

Lewis Carroll's ever celebrated, sometimes controversial, Alice in Wonderland has been adapted for the big screen several times. But Disney's 1951 version remains one of the favourites. Take your children to Wonderland and let them hold hands with Alice to make up their own mind about it. Will they get back home? Not if the Queen of Hearts has her way.
